

International Recording Star Mica Paris was the headline act at a charity concert and cocktail party held at Hanover Grange, Jamaica, on 19th March.

The concert was in aid of The Edna Manley Foundation which was represented on the night by Patricia Ramsey Supporting acts were Kevor Williams and Tallulah Rendell.

Kevor Williams recently (2011) graduated from the Edna Manley Arts School so it was especially appropriate that they performed.

Tallulah Rendell is now based in Germany when not touring and she flew in from South Africa. One of the highlights of the evening was a jamming session featuring Mica and Tallulah.

Mica Paris produced an incredible vocal performance which made the whole evening one that those fortunate enough to attend will never forget.

In the week of The Sugar Cane Ball and charity polo it was very rewarding to be able to hold an event supporting the arts in Jamaica.

It was great to have Culture Minister Lisa Hanna in attendance.

<http://jamaica-gleaner.com/gleaner/20120224/social/social3.html>

Mica Paris live at Hanover Grange

Kevor Williams live at Hanover Grange

Tallulah Rendell live at Hanover Grange

